October 10th, 2009

PRESS RELEASE

Manu Heredia debut on Netlabel Neovynyl! One of the most prominent releases to date. Utopic Love in Limbo is entitled charged of energy and personality. An invisible environment, to develop what happens inside the head of this author.

In this EP we're back pointing to quality music, which is in all tracks of this Utopic Love in Limbo finding plenty of styles. Although he remains in a prominent tech-house, is full of melancholic atmospheres and sounds closer to deep house.

For this release we have a remix of Miguel Colmenares in People in Addis Abeba. Miguel comes from signing an excellent first EP on Neovynyl Recordings, a work that has received really good feedback from artists like Someone Else, Felipe Venegas or Alland Byallo. For this remix he delights us with this dynamic and sensual touch that characterizes him.

The release will be available on our website for free download under creative commons license since October 12th.
